

The National Resilience College and the National Defence University of Malaysia Strategic Partnership

Welcome to the official website of the National Resilience College (NRC). We proudly showcase our strategic partnership with the National Defence University of Malaysia (NDUM) in education, which brings together both institutions' collective strengths and expertise.

The collaboration between NRC and NDUM signifies our shared commitment to excellence in education and our dedication to nurturing future leaders in national resilience and defence. By joining forces, we aim to create a synergistic learning environment that fosters innovation, knowledge exchange, and practical skills development.

Through this strategic partnership, faculty and course members from both institutions will have the unique opportunity to engage in collaborative research projects, joint academic programs, and cross-institutional initiatives. This inter-institutional cooperation will broaden perspectives, enhance educational offerings, and promote a holistic education approach, encompassing academic knowledge and practical application.

Our shared vision is to cultivate well-rounded graduates with a deep understanding of national resilience and defence, equipped with the necessary skills and knowledge to address the complex challenges of the contemporary world. We aim to produce leaders who can contribute meaningfully to our nation's defence and security landscape by integrating theory and practice.

As you explore our website, you will discover this fruitful partnership's various programs, courses, and research opportunities. Our esteemed faculty members, experienced staff, and state-of-the-art facilities create an optimal learning environment that nurtures growth, fosters critical thinking, and encourages innovation.

We invite you to embark on this exciting educational journey with us. Whether you are a prospective student, current student, academic professional, or public member interested in our collaborative endeavours, we welcome you to explore the diverse educational opportunities that arise from the strategic partnership between the National Resilience College and the National Defence University of Malaysia.

Together, we strive for excellence in education, research, and the development of future leaders who will shape the future of our nation's resilience and defence.

Thank you for visiting our website; we look forward to engaging with you.

Yours sincerely,
